

What to do

The aim of orienteering is to use the map to find your way to a series of locations, in the correct order. Each location is shown on the map as a numbered circle.

To help you find them a description of each is displayed on the answer sheet.

At each location there is a control marker. When you find the marker, make a note on the answer sheet of the number and letter that appear on it.

You can attempt the course on your own or as a team – try timing each person or team and see who completes the course the fastest!

Setting the map

A key skill in orienteering is setting the map. This means turning the map until the symbols on the map line up with the corresponding features on the ground.

This helps to ensure you set off in the right direction. Use tracks and paths to navigate to the controls.

Map Symbols

Use the key and map symbols to help you understand and read the map.

Do you have a smartphone?

You can use the free 'SnapNav' Orienteering APP to record your course time. Your time will be recorded online and you can compare it with other peoples.

Use the APP to scan the start triangle at the start and finish, and scan each control marker as you find them.

Simply download the APP from: www.snapnav.co.uk

You can also use the APP to find out about other orienteering opportunities in your area.
