

Housing Benefit

Application for Discretionary Housing Payment

Discretionary Housing Payments are payable only as an addition to Housing Benefit. If this is not in payment, no Discretionary Housing Payment can be awarded. They can only be awarded up to the maximum eligible rent liability. Awards are discretionary. So we cannot guarantee an application will be successful. Please answer as fully as possible the following questions and, where appropriate, provide evidence of your statements. We will use the information and evidence you provide to decide whether there is a need for further financial assistance. So, it is very important to give full details of your reasons. If necessary, continue your answers on a separate sheet.

Please note: Only applicants who can show they have exceptional circumstances are likely to be considered for a Discretionary Housing Payment.

Changes in circumstances

Please remember you must tell us about any changes to your circumstances, or the circumstances of anyone that lives with you, that have occurred since your Housing Benefit entitlement was last assessed AND during any award of discretionary housing payments. Some examples of the types of changes you need to tell us about include:

- changes in your rent liability and address
- changes to your (or, if applicable, partner's) income and savings

Evidence required

We will need to see evidence to support your application – see the leaflet Information and Evidence for HB for advice on what is acceptable evidence.

- changes affecting the income and circumstances of the people living with you
- if you, your partner or someone living with you starts or stops work
- if you stop getting child benefit for a child
- if someone joins or leaves your household and their income

You need to provide evidence of the change(s) and the date(s) they occurred.

Note: we must see original documentation.

Please attach your evidence to this form or take it to your nearest One Stop Shop where photocopies can be made. Never send valuable documents through the post.

Your declaration

Please read this declaration carefully before you sign and date it.

I understand the following:
