London Borough of Tower Hamlets School Vacancy List

23rd September 2015

We shall ensure fairness and equal opportunities throughout our workforce and in service delivery. We welcome applicants from suitably skilled candidates regardless of ethnicity, gender, disability, sexuality, religion or age.
HEAD OF MFL, TLR 1B (£9768) OR ASSOCIATE ASSISTANT HEADTEACHER i/c MFL L10-14 (£54,977- 59,880) WOULD INCLUDE ADDITIONAL WHOLE SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITIES
Start date January 2016 or earlier if possible.

Swanlea is a large, vibrant and thriving school in the centre of London. With c.1000 students on roll, a further 210 at KS5, staff at Swanlea have the opportunity to work alongside outstanding colleagues to deliver the curriculum and outstanding student outcomes across KS3-5.

The Modern Foreign Languages Faculty teaches 4 languages to KS4: Bengali, French, German and Spanish. From autumn 2016 we are looking to introduce A level Spanish and French at KS5. This position would suit either a second in MFL looking for promotion to a Head of Faculty or an existing Head of Faculty who is looking for additional whole school responsibilities which would be discussed at interview.

In July 2013 Swanlea was graded as outstanding in all categories for the second time. However we are not complacent and aim to continue to deliver outstanding student progress. We are committed to the continuous professional learning of all staff and the successful candidate will receive first class training and development. All middle leaders receive outstanding leadership and management training.

As you would expect, we’re looking for the best. A good honours degree and qualified teacher status are essential. Naturally you should be an outstanding teacher. You will be able to demonstrate unwavering commitment to raising progress and standards and like us, you believe that social disadvantage is no barrier to achievement and that every student can share in the joy of education and attainment. Most importantly, you will possess integrity, good humour and moral purpose.

Swanlea School is committed to the safeguarding and welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to be committed to this.

To apply, please go to: www.teshirewire.com/SwanleaSchool/E15DJ or send your completed application form to officeadmin@swanlea.towerhamlets.sch.uk

Closing date: 9.00am on Tuesday 29th September 2015

Closing date: 9am on 25 September 2015
LITERACY CO-ORDINATOR TLR - 1a (£7,470)
Start date January 2016 or earlier if possible.

Swanlea is a large, vibrant and thriving 11-18 school in the centre of London. Summer 2015 we achieved our best KS4 (5+ A*-C E/M 75%) and KS5 results.

Literacy is a key whole school priority for Swanlea School and in 2013, OFSTED described our provision for literacy as outstanding.

We are looking for an individual who has a genuine passion for literacy and believes that all staff should be effective teachers of literacy. This position would suit an individual who has a proven track record of delivering CPL (Continuous Professional Learning) that has had measurable impact on classroom practice and student outcomes.

In July 2013, Swanlea was graded as outstanding in all categories for the second time. However we are not complacent and aim to continue to deliver outstanding student progress across all key stages. We are committed to the continuous professional learning of all staff and the successful candidate will receive first class training and development. All middle leaders receive outstanding leadership and management training.

As you would expect, we’re looking for the best. A good honours degree and qualified teacher status are essential. Naturally you should be an outstanding teacher. Graduate Teaching Assistant – MFL

Salary: Support Staff Pay Scale 2 £15,938 – £16,295 (actual salary)
Contract Type: 1 Year Contract
Contract Term: Full Time, Term Time Only, 35 hours per week
Location: London Borough of Tower Hamlets
Closing Date: Friday 2nd October 2015 at 10am

We are seeking to appoint an ambitious and enthusiastic Graduate Teaching Assistant to support our Modern Foreign Languages (MFL) Department.

Working alongside MFL teachers, you will have an overall responsibility to support teaching and learning. Working with students on a one-to-one and small group basis both in and out of class you will work to support our raise in standards of achievement for all pupils, to encourage pupils to become independent learners, to ensure their safety and welfare and support the inclusion of pupils in all aspects of school life. You may also support pupils with additional learning needs.

The post would suit a graduate who has an interest in pursuing a future career in teaching; ideally you will have some prior experience of working with children. The ability to communicate with students in French and Spanish is essential.

It is an exciting time to join Bow School in Bromley-by-Bow, London, as we undergo a significant £31m project programme of expansion and change. Music Teacher

Required from January 2016 or as soon as possible, initially for one day a week.

We are looking for an enthusiastic and inspiring qualified teacher to teach curriculum music across the school, to teach singing in assemblies and to lead the wider development of music at Olga. Our children are great singers and would love to have someone who can help them to be even better.

At Olga, we are committed to a broad and balanced curriculum and we value the arts highly as an essential part of our children's education and experience. We need someone to help us to make music a central part of school life, someone who can work successfully in partnership with staff, parents, children and the wider community.

As a one-form entry school, this post is initially for one day a week, but we are currently in temporary buildings while our new school is being built, and then we will begin our expansion to 3-form entry. This will lead to further exciting opportunities for staff and pupils and the opportunity to expand our music provision.

Application packs are available from admin@olga.towerhamlets.sch.uk

Visits to the school are very highly recommended. Please contact Linda Thompson or Emma Brown to make an appointment, either on 020 8981 7127 or by email to admin@olga.towerhamlets.sch.uk

If you are interested in being part of our growing team, please submit your completed application form to the email address above or to the school by midday on Friday 9th October. Interviews will take place the week beginning 12th October.

For September 2015

Teacher of Science (Biology, Chemistry or Physics)
(MPS)

St Paul’s Way Trust School, in association with King’s College London, is seeking to appoint an outstanding and creative teacher of Science (any specialism). The post would be suitable for both an NQT and a more experienced teacher who would like to develop their skills and expertise in a large, well-resourced Science faculty.

This is an excellent career opportunity for a colleague who is passionate about the entitlement of young people to a rich and varied Science curriculum. Working within a vibrant and highly successful faculty, you will be an outstanding classroom teacher with a passionate commitment to the progress of all students in our fully comprehensive and heavily oversubscribed school. The successful candidate will have an unwavering belief in the potential of every student. (S)he will do what it takes to ensure that students achieve their best, and will have the contagious enthusiasm for the subject which excites and motivates students.

Science, delivered through our unique Faraday science curriculum, is an increasingly popular subject in the school’s academic sixth form and the successful candidate will be able to develop their A level teaching experience. Members of the Science team also have the opportunity to work with academic colleagues at Queen Mary University of London, one of our Trust Partners, both to extend their own subject expertise (through our innovative Teacher Fellowship scheme) and to provide additional research opportunities for our students. Students are already working on a cutting edge DNA research project funded by the Welcome Trust (Authentic Biology) in our brand new research centre.

In March 2013, Ofsted described the school as ‘Outstanding’ in every category, including the VI Form. We were recently designated as a National Teaching School. The school was commended for its “relentless pursuit of scholarship and excellence”. Our award winning new building is situated in the heart of East London and Professor Brian Cox OBE is our Patron.

If you would like to play your part in creating outstanding provision for our students, we would very much like to hear from you.

Applications will be considered on receipt.
For further details of the post and to download an application pack please visit www.spwt.net.
To apply, please send covering letter and completed application form to recruitment@spwt.net
To arrange a visit, please email recruitment@spwt.net
Please Note: We do not accept CVs alone.

MPS and UPS scales are decided in accordance with the school’s pay policy. Details are available to applicants on request. St Paul’s Way Trust School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All successful candidates will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS Check.

We seek to appoint ambitious and enthusiastic Teaching Assistants.

At Bishop Challoner, staff work hard to meet the sometimes complex and challenging needs of our students. Successful Teaching Assistants will be confident, have experience that will be relevant to assisting in the educational and social development of students across the school at secondary level and be willing to work individually and as a part of a team.

This role will suit someone with an outgoing personality who is looking for an exciting and rewarding role, or looking to gain classroom experience before applying for a PGCE.

You will be required to:

- Support pupils with a variety of additional learning needs including: Special Educational Needs and Learning Difficulties; Emotional and Behavioural needs (EBD); Students learning English as an additional language (EAL)
- Promote good behaviour and positive values at all times to impact Teaching and Learning
- Maintain a flexible and adaptable approach and be able to work in a variety of settings
- Inspire, challenge and motivate students

Bishop Challoner is a successful vibrant multicultural federation in the heart of the East End of London. Proudly rated as Outstanding in April 2014, we offer fine exam results – in 2015 up 6% with an impressive 62% A*-C including English and Maths, and an enviable range of extracurricular activities, reflecting the energy and enthusiasm of staff and students. Described as "one of our borough’s gems", we are still at an exciting stage of our journey.

We offer:

- A strong commitment to your professional development and career management
- An opportunity to be part of an enthusiastic and creative team
- A supportive environment in which your enthusiasm will be encouraged, nurtured and rewarded
- Outstanding exam results across the federation, with non-core subjects genuinely valued
- A working environment focused on Teaching and Learning and raising standards for all

If you have the passion and drive to help uphold high standards of conduct at Bishop Challoner, we look forward to hearing from you.

To apply please request an application pack from Ellie Widdison at bishopchalloner@hays.com, or you can contact Ellie on 02072598770. Your application is a direct permanent application to Bishop Challoner, Hays is our recruitment partner and manages our permanent appointments

Closing Date: 10am on Thursday 1st October 2015

Interview Date: Week Commencing 5th October 2015

HEAD OF MUSIC - TLR 1a £7,470
Start Date January 2016 or Earlier if Possible

Swanlea is a large, vibrant and thriving school in the centre of London. With c.1300 students on roll, staffs at Swanlea have the opportunity to work alongside high performing colleagues to deliver the curriculum and outstanding student outcomes across KS3-5.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and inspirational Head of Music with the vision and commitment to lead our high performing music department. This vacancy will attract a successful teacher of music who is looking for increased responsibility and challenge.

We value the role that music plays in the extra-curricular life of the school and are looking for a dynamic musician who will inspire and engage our students in a love of music, increased student participation and outstanding student progress and attainment.

In July 2013 Swanlea was graded as outstanding in all categories for the second time. However, we are not complacent and aim to continue to deliver outstanding student progress. We are committed to the continuous professional learning of all staff and the successful candidate will receive first class training and development. All middle leaders receive outstanding leadership and management training.

As you would expect, we’re looking for the best. A good honours degree and qualified teacher status are essential. Naturally you should be an outstanding teacher. You will be able to demonstrate unwavering commitment to raising progress and standards and like us, you believe that social disadvantage is no barrier to achievement and that every student can share in the joy of education and attainment. Most importantly, you will possess integrity, good humour and moral purpose.

Swanlea School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All posts are subject to a satisfactory enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check and references.

To apply, please go to: www.teshirewire.com/SwanleaSchool/E15DJ or send your completed application form to officeadmin@swanlea.towerhamlets.sch.uk
